

The Santa Clara County Historical and Genealogical Society presents

Chinese Labor in Santa Clara County in the 19th Century

By Daryl Lee

Tuesday, March 18, 2025
6:30-8:30 pm PDT on Zoom

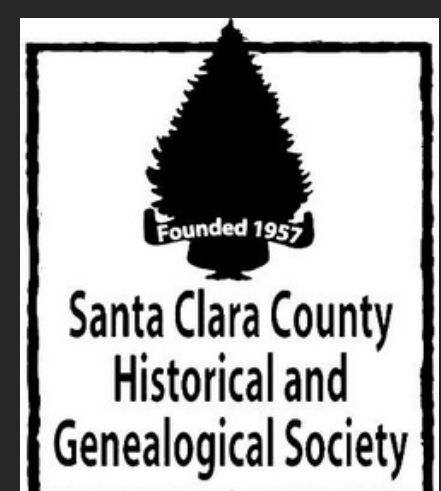

What attracted the Chinese to California and the Bay Area in the 1800s and early 1900s? Why would they risk their lives to travel to a foreign land and put up with isolation and bigotry? How did the Chinese become such an important labor force to the economic engine in the Santa Clara Valley that continues up to the present? Attend this presentation and find out the answers!

Daryl Lee was born and raised in the Santa Clara Valley. He is a software engineer who for 25 years worked at Apple and obsessed about the latest greatest product. Recently he has retired and turned to his second favorite obsession - researching history in books, journals, and newspapers.
